

Wanted: Nominations for Notable Business

September 13, 2010 will kick off the State's 27th annual observance of Industry Appreciation Week. Chiefland will join other communities around the state in showing support for local industry and trade by hosting a September 14 Banquet honoring two of our own notable businesses.

The Chamber of Commerce is urging the public to come forward with suggestions. If you have noticed or experienced something extraordinary in your business dealings, consider making a nomination. Some qualifications to consider might include:
